Handy Cross Runners undertakes to collect and use your personal data in compliance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and our legal basis for processing this data is our legitimate interest as a running club. We use the data for the administration of your membership, the communication of information and the organisation of events. This information will be recorded in our membership database, and, except as provided for in the following paragraph, will not be passed on by us for use by any other third parties.

When you become a member of Handy Cross Runners you will automatically be registered as a member of England Athletics. We will provide England Athletics with your personal data which they will use to enable access to an online portal for you (called myAthletics). England Athletics will contact you to invite you to sign into and update your MyAthletics portal (which, amongst other things, allows you to set and amend your privacy settings). If you have any questions about the continuing privacy of your personal data when it is shared with England Athletics, please contact dataprotection@englandathletics.org.
